HERE AND THERE.

Three hundred milk dealers of Pittsburgh and Allegheny have formed a combine.

A $20,000 automobile, belonging to David Bishop, of Lee, Mass., was destroyed by fire.

The docket for the September term of the Court of Appeals was closed. It embraces about 450 cases.

At Springfield, Me., Mrs. Anna Bell shot and killed her 18-year-old daughter and committed suicide.

Fire at Owensboro destroyed the entire plant of the Owensboro Foundry Company, entailing a loss of $25,000.

"Big Joe" Grimes, said to have been the largest man in the world, weighing 754 pounds, is dead at Cincinnati.

W. G. McCoa, a well-known young man of Birmingham, Ala., was shot and killed by a Negro near Trussville, Ala.

Because his horse, K. O., on which he had bet $100 failed to win, A. B. Rown shot and killed himself at Creston, Iowa.

Mrs. Theodore Kruse was shot and killed at Denver, Col., by Mrs. Kate Meiner, who is believed to have been jealous.

Rather than obey her mother's injunction to return home, wayward Tiny Moore, of Atlanta, Ala., killed herself at Knoxville, Tenn.

At Lexington Fire destroyed the entire plant of the Bluegrass Stove and Iron Company, entailing a loss of $40,000. The plant was uninsured.

Thirteen thousand cotton mill operatives at Fall River, Mass., have been thrown into idleness by the closing down for a week of 17 big mills.

A district convention will meet at Mt. Sterling September 21 to select a Democratic candidate for Railroad Commissioner in the Third district.

In an address at Chicago Mr. John Temple Graves, of Georgia, declared that separations of the races is the only possible solution of the negro problem.

Auditor Conlier sent to President Dorsey, of the State Fair Association, a check for $15,000, covering the State's annual appropriation for the enterprise.

The Democratic State Central Committee of Louisiana has ordered primaries for the nomination of a State ticket. The date will be selected by a subcommittee.

Control of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company has been acquired by the Pittsburgh Coal Company. The combined capital is $132,000,000.

The President has appointed Sherman P. McPherson to be United States Attorney for the Southern district of Ohio, at Cincinnati, succeeding William E. Bundy, deceased.

Six persons were killed and 25 injured in a wreck on the Southern railway near Yorkville, S. C. The train bearing 40 passengers crashed through a trestle to the ground 50 feet below.

During an amateur minstrel show at Bessemer, Ala., Edwin Neely, one of the performers, was shot and killed by a companion with a revolver he thought was loaded with blank cartridges.

Joe C. Graddy, of Woodford, last week sold a yearling Hereford steer, weight 985 pounds, to Mr. W. H. Curtis, of Eminence, at 10c a pound, the highest price ever paid for a steer in Kentucky.

Preferring death to serious charges against him by his nephew, Andrew W. Gorsline, a Long Island City manufacturer, killed himself in jail, after making a will leaving all his estate to the nephew.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Prof. M. O. Winfrey and Mr. S. W. Givens were elected deacons at the Christian church Sunday.—Middleboro News.

Of 42 State Governors, 30 are church members, as follows: Methodist, eight; Presbyterian, seven; Baptist, six; Episcopalian, four. Church members form one third of the population and furnish two-thirds of the Governors.

The sermons of Rev. H. C. Risner, of Roanoke, Ala., are drawing great crowds each afternoon and evening at the Baptist church and much interest is being manifested. No invitation has been extended as yet to sinners, Rev. Risner thinking best not to do so until the meeting gets under good headway.

Bishop Hendrix and the Presiding Elders of the Kentucky Methodist Episcopal Conference, in session at Cynthiana, have entirely restricted the Conference, wiping out the London district and making sweeping changes in all the other districts. The following towns compose the Danville district: Danville, Perryville, Mackville, Salt River, Moreland, Wilmore, Somerset, Burnside, Burgin, Pineville, Brodhead, Middleboro, Corbin, Pittsburg, Richmond, Lancaster, Bryantville, Stanford, Preachersville, Pulaski, West Pulaski, Harrodsburg.

Thomas B. Cooper, a veteran of the civil war, is dead at Lebanon, aged 73.

LIBERTY.

W. H. Wilkinson made a business trip to Lebanon last week.

Isaac Wilkinson has embarked in cooper's trade in Louisville.

James Giboney had his fair horse at the Somerset fair last week.

Mr. O. P. Bowman and Miss Eubanks are attending the Somerset fair.

G. R. Wilkinson was in Stanford, Danville and Lexington last week.

Mr. E. H. Kidd is putting in the foundation for a barber shop between Exchange Hotel and Bank.

The democrats are wearing broad smiles in expectation of the visit of Gov. Beckham and Hon. Ollie James next Tuesday, the 8th.

James Cowden left last week for Louisville to enter Bryant & Stratton Business College. Jim is preparing himself for a "business man."

Jason Wesley, of Middleburg, was thrashing republican brush in these diggings last week, hunting voters for himself in the primary for Oct. 3, 1903.

Henry Wesley and Miss Mamie Telford had a birthday party at Judge Telford's last Wednesday evening, Mr. Wesley being 19, and Miss Mamie 17.

A social was given last Thursday at the residence of Judge Belden in honor of his grandchildren, Willie and Miss Jennie Belden, of Jeffersonville.

There were never better prospects of crops than now. If storm and early frost do not come in the language of G. H. Cowan we will have corn to throw at the birds.

Miss Levona Riggins, who is attending school here, spent last Saturday at her home at Evona. Mr. P. W. Napier left for Louisville last week on an extended business visit.

Mr. Josh Stone returned to his home in Washington, D. C. Saturday, after several days' recreation among his old friends here. Misses Mamie and Bertie Stone returned to their home at Monticello last week after a month's visit to their aunt, Mrs. George E. Stone.

Henry Thomas was at Dunville last Saturday to see old friends, who are visiting there from Missouri.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Lightning killed two fine mules for C. D. Hall, at Middleboro.

Middleboro is to have a new bank of $50,000 capital, with R. C. Ford at the head of it.

Valuable deposits of copper are reported to have been found in Crittenden county.

T. G. Lewis, a deaf mute, of Leslie county, was killed by a freight train near Big Stone Gap.

J. R. Bennett, a prominent citizen of Shelby county, was knocked in the head by a Negro. He will recover.

A Mercer county farmer killed a mad dog which had traveled all the way from Lexington to Harrodsburg.

Barton Bryant was shot and seriously wounded by an Owensboro policeman while attempting to resist arrest.

The board of trustees of Georgetown College elected Dr. J. J. Taylor, of Norfolk, Va. president by a vote of 10 to 9.

The annual State meeting of the Mexican war veterans at Richmond, Ky., has been postponed until September 24.

Henry Edson, who killed Mrs. Pullen and then committed suicide, is also charged with having embezzled church funds amounting to between $50,000 and $100,000.

Barton Bryant, a well-known farmer of Davies county, was shot and fatally wounded at Owensboro by Policeman John Lyons, who had a warrant for Bryant's arrest.

Attorneys Sam C. Hardin and Henry C. Clay have formed a partnership and will practice their profession in the counties of Clay, Laurel and Harlan.—Mountain Kentuckian.

The Somerset Journal says: A vote for Belknap is a vote for perpetual winter at the State capitol. Belknap, the human iceberg, is out begging the votes of the "common people." His political life is to be made or marred by the class of people he has always spurned and despised. He thinks a few sugared words now will atone for a lifetime aversion. How vastly much he has to learn!

Stomach Trouble.

"I have been troubled with my stomach for the past four years," says D. L. Beach, of Clover Nook Farm, Greenfield, Mass. "A few days ago I was induced to buy a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. I have taken part of them and feel a great deal better." If you have any trouble with your stomach try a box of these Tablets. You are certain to be pleased with the result. Price 25c. For sale by W. N. Craig.

Rev. J. D. Hillier, of Macon, Ga., who declared lynch law a better exposition of God's law as enunciated by Moses than the present jury system, received many letters of criticism from the North and West.

NEWS NOTES.

Tom Hall, a well known Confederate and river writer, died suddenly in Louisville.

Marshal Gray shot and killed Lee Smith at Nicholson's mines, near Middleboro.

There were five wills offered for probate of Gen. C. M. Clay at Richmond yesterday.

Sarah and Gladys Hagan, daughters of a Kansas farmer, were burned to death near Topeka.

Mrs. Jack Bowling, formerly of Middleboro, committed suicide at Ensley, Ala., by hanging.

Mrs. Mary Gano Bryan Cobb, aged 101 years, and stepmother of W. J. Bryan, died at her home in New London, Ind. She was a native of Kentucky.

Gov. Peabody, of Colorado, has ordered out 1,000 members of the State Guard for duty in the Cripple Creek district, where miners are causing trouble.

The annual report of Secretary Hester, of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, puts the cotton crop of 1902-3 at 10,727,539 bales, an increase of 46,579 bales over last year.

T. G. Roach, of New Mexico, has declared that he has papers bearing on the Gobel murder which would clear Caleb Powers and condemn W. S. Taylor. Powers disclaims all knowledge of the Roach story.

At a house in the suburbs of Franklin, Mrs. Josephine Merston, a widow, shot and fatally wounded W. A. Dowell, who she claims, was one of a party of drunken men that had attacked her residence. A court of inquiry exonerated the woman.

The Hyden Thousandsticks remarks: Wm. Griffiths (Big Will), Bristol Bowling and John Hall started around the world the other day and bound themselves to make the round trip in eight months. They got to Middleboro and bought three jugs of whiskey and then returned home.

Secretary Shaw has decided upon a plan of action to relieve the St. Louis banks from the strain incident to expenditures on account of the World's Fair. He will deposit $2,500,000 in five banks in that city, the banks to deposit $500,000 of State and municipal bonds as security therefor.

Ignorant negroes in Mississippi are alarmed at a report current among members of their race to the effect that they will be put back into slavery when Maj. Vardaman is elected Governor. The report grew out of the fact that Vardaman made the race question the principal issue of his campaign for the democratic nomination.

DYE.

We are having a cool and ripening season on farmers.

G. W. Davis got mashed up by a falling rock while loading his wagon.

Miss Judith Lanham is visiting her sister at Shelby City. Samuel Soper was here on business Tuesday.

We want to say that the W. F. Martin you spoke of coming to Casey in your last issue has not any family. He may want one.

Mr. Samuel Lyons and wife, of Junction City, are visiting here. Mr. V. Wilson and wife have gone to Russell county on a visit. Messrs. Rice Wilson, Luther Lanham, Abb Hall and James Williams, of this place, took in the Somerset fair.

Dye, Ky., is a postoffice midway between Yosemite and Liberty, with no store nearer than these two places.

The right kind of a man with a few hundred dollars invested in a grocery would receive good interest on his investment and the full appreciation of a large neighborhood.

For a bilious attack take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and a quick cure is certain. For sale by W. N. Craig.

Scott Hudson got second money in every race at Providence, R. I., Saturday. There were four in all.

MATRIMONIAL.

Barney Ernst, 27, and Miss Burnetta Ballard, 21, of the Highland section, were married last week.

Miss Lella Pittman and W. H. Eversole, son of Judge H. C. Eversole, of London, were married at Jellico.

Miss Beale McAfee, of Mercer county, and Rev. G. W. Mitchell are to be married in Shanghai, China, as soon as the prospective bride reaches that city.

The marriage of Dr. Joseph B. Beck, son of Mr. Wm. Beck, of this county, and Miss Gertrude Wood, of Somerset, was a surprise to his many friends in this county. They were joined in wedlock's holy bonds Saturday afternoon in Louisville at the residence of Rev. C. E. Powell by that gentleman, only a few intimate friends witnessing the ceremony. Dr. Beck recently moved from this county to Somerset to practice dentistry and is doing well there.

He is a young man of exemplary habits and good business qualifications and will prove to his chosen helpmeet a fond and loving husband. Miss Wood is one of Somerset's prettiest girls and that she will prove a companion fond and true to the man who has won her, there is no reason to doubt. Dr. and Mrs. Beck arrived here Sunday from Louisville and are now guests of his parents at their country home. The young couple have the best wishes of a legion of friends and trusts for them all the joys that married life affords.

The Bristol, Tenn., Daily Courier in speaking of the marriage of Rev. B. C. Horton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Horton, of this county, says: A beautiful home wedding was solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents, on Broad Street, Tuesday evening, Sept. 1st, at 8:30 o'clock, when Fannie Elizabeth Sullivan was united in marriage with Rev. B. C. Horton. Only a few friends and near relatives were present, Rev. Dr. James A. Burrow, of Nashville, performing the ceremony. The bride is one of Bristol's pleasant and attractive young ladies who will leave behind a host of admiring friends and acquaintances. She is a young lady of high moral character and will be a congenial life mate for the divine she has accepted as her husband. Mrs. Horton is known for her amiable disposition and other admirable traits which will strengthen Cupid's cords through future life. The groom has been pastor of Anderson Street church during the past conference year and is liked by the entire congregation. He is an able young minister and always pleases his audience by sermons of sound thought and good judgment. The people of Anderson street are slow to give him up and all will regret to see him depart for his new field of work in the Kentucky conference.

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over 30 years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by W. N. Craig.

Next To Nothing.

We are not giving "something for nothing," but the next thing to it.

We are offering Men's Suits that formerly sold for $10 to $25 for the little price of $15.

It has now reached the stage where the number is limited, but the suits that remain are as good as any that have been sold.

Your size is still here in one kind or another, so you are not too late for a bargain.

The following from the Lexington Democrat is so good that we use it for the present instead of Gov. Beckham's splendid effort:

The mighty chorus of Hosannas that went up from thousands of throats in Winchester Saturday bespoke the unquenchable tide of public opinion that had settled in favor of the democracy of Kentucky, and in the tempest of loyal enthusiasm, Gov. Beckham stood the leader of a grand and glorious party that has made Kentucky what it is and intends to make it even better in the years to come.

From every town, village and hamlet within easy distance of the capital of Clarke county, Kentuckians, irrespective of party affiliation, poured in from every direction until it seemed almost impossible that more could be received.

It was a banner day in the history of Kentucky democracy and it was a day upon which democratic principles were unfolded. From the political depths in which Taylorism had floundered public sentiment there came as from heaven above, direct rays of light which shone upon the assemblage and pointed the way to a greater and grander destiny than republicanism could dream of. From the flood gates the pearl divers of political truths brought forth the essence of right and showed the fallacies of the enemy by unfolding the principles that underlie the democracy of the State.

Imbued by no selfish purpose, but with a sole desire to serve the State, Gov. Beckham, that fearless and gallant leader of the democratic hosts, outlined the policy he had inaugurated as the chief executive of the State and the policy which he proposes to continue in the event of his sure and certain election.

With that intrepid courage which characterized the sons of imperial Rome, when under the warlike Caesar they started upon the mission to conquer the world, Gov. Beckham held up his enemies to the scornful ridicule of an intellectual Titan and expounded his own intentions toward the State with no uncertain tone and in language that all may understand.

Facing the issue of Belknap and Business, he showed wherein the republican nominee was as dangerous in the business of the State as he has been in the administration of the business affairs of his own firm, and that if an indictment for fraud was justified in one instance, an indictment for the same offense may be reasonably expected in the other. As far as the business administration of the State under the present regime was concerned, Gov. Beckham showed in plain and unequivocal language that he had, during his brief reign, relieved the State of debt and had a balance in the treasury to the good, and this with an indebtedness of over one million dollars confronting him when he assumed office as a direct result of republican misrule in Kentucky.

His entire address bears the imprint of the man, the leader and the statesman. There is no issue of public interest that is left untouched and this can not be said of his opponent, Morris B. Belknap. On the issue of pardons, an issue which has been created by his enemies, he says in words that cannot be misunderstood that he will not pardon a man convicted of assassination from ambush whether the accused belongs to one political party or the other.

Reviewing the troubles that have emanated from Breathitt county, Gov. Beckham deplores the conditions that have brought them about, explains what the administration is doing towards restoring peace and quietude in that district and assures the people that being assured of the guilt of the convicted assassins of J. B. Marcum they need not expect a pardon at his hands.

He points out that within three months of the time when J. B. Marcum was assassinated in Jackson, his accused murderers had been twice tried, the first trial resulting in a hung jury, so caused by a republican, and the second time resulting in a conviction and life imprisonment being accorded to both.

Contrasting the expeditious manner in which democrats have dealt with these cases, he emphasizes the fact that although three years have passed since Goebel was assassinated, but one of the convicted assassins is now wearing the stripes. That all may understand his attitude upon these issues, Governor Beckham declares that he will not pardon Jett and White, that he will not pardon any of the convicted assassins of Governor Goebel and challenges the republican nominee to make answer unto the issues hereby created. Then the question very naturally follows, Morris B. Belknap, the republican nominee for governor, be as frank with the people as he has been and say whether it be his purpose or not to pardon the convicted murderers of Governor Goebel? This question is still awaiting an answer and the people demand that an answer be made.

Governor Beckham's address shows him to be jealous of the best interests of the State, that he has carefully guarded her welfare and proposes a continuance of the same policy that has brought about the present desirable conditions.

The address is frank, fearless and manly. It is free from sophistry or misrepresentation. Cheered as it was by a thousand multiplied thousands of throats, it stands as a challenge to the opposition and defies contradiction. It exposes republican fallacies and falsehoods and expounds democratic principles and doctrines in language that all may read and understand. It is the trumpet sound of democratic victory and the death knell of republicanism in the State. It refutes the slander of his enemies and opens the door of honest criticism which republicans dare not face. In a word it is both a platform of promises and an earnest of performance. Every line of it is worthy of careful and frequent perusal.

After the Governor had concluded, there were speeches by Senators McCree and Blackburn, Col. Harry Weissinger and Congressman Ollie James. The crowd was estimated all the way from 5,000 to 15,000.

THE Chicago Chronicle, whose democracy is decidedly off color, is laboring hard to make people believe that Mr. Cleveland is the only man whom the democrats can elect President. Most democrats, however, haven't enough confidence in the ex-President to tear their shirts for him over the present occupant of the White House. It would be almost, Mr. Watterson would say, entirely a case of swapping the devil for the witch.

THE fair edition of the Somerset Journal was a daisy. It contained 20 pages of interesting matter, profusely illustrated with half tones of prominent business men, with nice write-ups of their business, etc. When Bro. Campbell goes 'a-cattin' he goes 'a-cattin'. He is to be congratulated on the edition and we are sure that the good people of Pulaski will show their appreciation of his industry and patronize him liberally.

THIS is what the Somerset Journal had to say about the felele candidate for governor who visited that place during the Somerset fair last week: On the night of September 3, cover your young turkeys. Belknap is coming to town, followed by a frost.

THIS AND THAT.

Snow fell for two hours in Leadville, Col.

J. M. Coffey sold to N. W. Pipes a pair of mules for $190 and to E. P. Woods 32 200-pound hogs at 5.15.

Roy S. Beazley passed through yesterday returning from the mountain fairs. He told us he made 27 shows and won 26 blue ties.

William Leathers, a young farmer of Boyle county, died of poisoning as the result of coming in contact with poison oak while cleaning a fence row.

In a fight at a camp meeting at Mt. Victory, Pulaski county, Wm. Bolton, a constable, killed two brothers named Richmond and was himself slain by Columbus Garrison.

OTTENHEIM.

Mrs. Dortha Disch, formerly of this place, is dead in Oklahoma.

W. G. James has returned from a visit to relatives at Junction City.

Jack Manuel has had two very sick children, but both are much improved now.

Revs. Wm. Sprinkles and Andrew Johnson are holding a protracted meeting at Sugar Grove.

J. T. Adams has a novelty in the form of a small jennett and a wagon of his own make, which is of the latest style.

Another sister of the Catholic faith has arrived and is rooming at the hotel where they will teach a 10 months' school in English, German and fancy needle work.

A party told us the other day that he wanted Ottenheim represented in the columns of the I. J. once a week or we could expect a threshing, and of course we prefer writing.

H. A. Pleasants was a visitor in our community last Friday and requested us not to have his name put in the paper, but he is such a nice, clever man we can't keep from it.

County road working has been going on for the last two weeks and G. A. Pleasants, who is an overseer, has the name of doing more work at less expense than any man in this section.

A. J. Pollard, our clever barber, is building an addition to his house, which improves its looks greatly. He worked until midnight Saturday in order to finish it, much to the annoyance of his neighbors, who say he made so much racket they couldn't sleep.

Joe Coleman bought 107 acres of land from the Lincoln Land Co. for $200 and 22 acres adjoining it from Chris Link for $100. Joe is a son of Skelton Coleman and for the last 20 years he has been residing in Cincinnati, but will make his home in the future in this community.

Ed Hirschfeld, aged 23, fell in a vat of boiling water in Cincinnati and was badly scalded, and Adam Petrey, Jr., while working in a saw mill in Vincennes, Ind., got his hand cut off. Both men were former residents of this place. Petrey has a wife and children living here.

POLITICAL.

Congressman Vincent Boreing is critically ill with pneumonia.

C. M. Crow was nominated by the democrats of Owensboro for the Legislature for the city district.

The appointment of George H. Alexander, of Louisville, as revenue agent for the State-at-large is announced by Auditor Gus G. Coulter.

Judge Frank Daugherty, of Nelson, has withdrawn from the race for Congress in the 4th district, leaving Hon. D. H. Smith a clear track.

The Kentucky Republican Club, at Washington, composed of Federal office-holders, elected Mr. Harry Giovannoli, of Danville, president.

Charles B. Sullivan, of Woodford county, has announced his candidacy for prison commissioner against the present incumbent, Hon. Geo. V. Green, of Hopkinsville.

Judge Clifton J. Pratt, of Madisonville, was named as the republican nominee for circuit judge of that district at the convention held at Princeton and has accepted the nomination.

A report by way of Winchester says that Judge D. B. Redwine has withdrawn from the race for the democratic nomination for circuit judge. Judge Riddle, of Irvine, will be nominated on Saturday.

The Democratic Campaign Committee mailed yesterday its handbook to every section of the State. The book sets forth the records of republican and democratic administrations. It is a forceful vindication of Gov. Beckham.

LANCASTER.

In the county court Mrs. Mac Carey was adjudged of unsound mind, and sent to the Lakeland asylum.

E. W. Arnold died in this city Friday afternoon of hemorrhage, superinduced by a three weeks' illness of typhoid fever. He was a son of W. A. Arnold and leaves a widow, three sisters and a brother, Jesse H. Arnold, of Lexington. He was about 39 years old.

Why should we smile? Well, I'll tell you why: It's just as cheap to smile as cry, And then it breaks the discontent, And straightens out the kink that's bent In every life.

One of the most successful revivals ever conducted in Metcalf county has just closed at Bethel church, near Center, with 102 conversions. The meeting was conducted by the Rev. Brack Porter.

A LIST of guests at Crab Orchard Springs, published in Sunday's Courier-Journal, shows that there is yet a hundred or more present at the most delightful Summer resort in the South.

MESSRS. WALTER WARREN and John Atkins did a good job in raising the bridge which crosses Dix River, near Preachersville, and the stone masons now are working on it and it will soon be in good order.

I WILL sell at auction on court day, Sept. 14, in the court house yard at 10 o'clock, several plows, harrow, plow gear, buggy harness, garden tools, carpenter's tools, wheelbarrow, etc. Almost everything almost new. B. J. Pinkerton.

WILL BUILD AGAIN.—Mr. N. L. Curry, president of the Curry Grocery Co., Junction City, says the company will rebuild again, but is undecided as to where they will locate their offices and warehouse. Why not come to Stanford, Mr. Curry?

EXCURSION.—There will be a colored excursion run from Richmond next Sunday, Sept. 13. The fare from Stanford will be $1.75 for the round trip, train leaving here at 7:30 A. M., arriving at Louisville at 11 A. M., returning leaves Louisville at 7 P. M.

THE Graded School will open next Monday, Sept. 14, and a large enrollment of pupils is expected. The building has been completed and is now ready for the opening, and it is a credit to the town and an honor to the board of education, who have worked so faithfully to make it what it is.

CARROLL BAILEY got two blues and seven reds at the Somerset fair last week. He got one blue on his hand—some team and captured first money in the roadster ring with his fleet footed black. All the reds were on harness rings and called for good money. You can't keep a good man down.

REMEMBER that the "noblest Roman of them all," Senator James B. McCreary, and Hon. N. B. Hays, democratic nominee for Attorney General, will speak at the court-house next Monday, Sept. 14, court day, at 1:30 P. M. Go and hear these able exponents of democracy and it will do you good.

RUSSELL.—Miss Jennie Russell, a daughter of Mr. M. S. Russell, of Milledgeville, died Saturday of typhoid fever and was buried Sunday at Hustonville. Services were conducted at the grave by Rev. G. W. Mills. She was about 18 years of age and a christian young lady in every sense of the term.

MR. A. TRIBBLE, the clever mine host of the Tribble House, at Junction City, has bought the John B. Nichols residence in Danville for $7,500. He has presented it to his daughters, Mrs. Ira G. Taylor and Miss Annie Tribble, and he and his wife will make their home with them. Mr. Tribble will dispose of his valuable hotel property at Junction City.

A SPLENDID picture of Mr. W. Logan Wood appeared in Friday's Danville News with a nice notice of his candidacy for chief of police of that city. No better democrat or braver officer could be found than this gentleman and his Lincoln county friends will watch the race with interest. Mr. Wood is a son of our excellent townsman, Mr. T. E. Wood.

"IN FETTERS OF BRASS."—The lecture at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by Rev. H. C. Risner, "for men only," was very well attended, the church being nearly full. The lecture was full of good food and ought to be headed. Rev. Risner is an interesting and eloquent preacher and his sermons at the Baptist church on afternoons and evenings are doing much good.

BIG SALE.—Mr. H. P. Hawkins bought of Mr. Thomas Metcalf his farm of 453 acres, situated on the Danville pike, for $28,350. Mr. Hawkins bought the Erwin farm that he lives on some time ago and his latest purchase makes him one of the largest land owners in Lincoln county, owning about 700 acres. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf will move to Chicago, we understand. The people of Lincoln county will give them up with reluctance, but wish them well in their new home.

READ the "ad." of John W. Crutchfield.

THE banks yesterday observed labor day for Sunday, but Postmaster Florence and the other business men were at it from early till late.

THE L. & N. will sell round-trip tickets to the South and Southwest at greatly reduced rates from Sept. 15 to Oct. 20. See Agent J. S. Rice about them.

NOTICE is hereby given that Sept. 26 is the last day for filing claims against Lincoln county, including county roads, turnpikes, merchants, etc., payable out of the levy of 1903. Geo. B. Cooper, clerk Lincoln County Court.

THE trustees have arranged with Professor Henry E. Halton, formerly principal of Murray, Ky., Male and Female Institute, to take the presidency of Stanford Female College. The next session will begin on Wednesday, Sept. 9th.

THE friends of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Jones deeply sympathize with them in the loss of their two months-old daughter, Della, which died Saturday afternoon. The burial occurred at McKinnery Sunday afternoon. It was a pretty, bright child and the idol of its fond parents.

THE reunion near Kingsville next Thursday, Friday and Saturday promises to be an enjoyable occasion and one that will draw like a sticking plaster. There will be a number of speakers present, a fine band will discourse sweet music, a merry go-around has been put up and last but not least, a snake-eater will run his joint wide open. It will be a big time with the old soldiers, who will attend each day and stay from early until late.

THE entertainment given by Miss Lita Belle Cash at her country home near Turnersville, in honor of her guests, Misses Louise and Anne Askew, of Georgetown, and Philadelphia Strader, of Beverly, W. Va., was a brilliant social function. About 50 young people enjoyed Miss Cash's hospitality and showered compliments upon her when the reluctant good-byes were said. Dainty refreshments were served and the sweet music of an orchestra added to the pleasure of the evening.

NEGRO BOY ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.—While preparing to go hunting Friday evening, Thomas Pettus, colored, of Crab Orchard, was accidentally killed by the little son of Smith Welch, of color. They were at the residence of Mr. D. C. Payne, near the Springs, and while the Pettus boy was going out of the kitchen, Welch, who was handling the shot gun, and who didn't know it was loaded, let it go off. The shot struck Pettus in the forehead, blowing his head off and scattering his brains against the house. The boys are about 12 or 14 years old.
